

FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS!

You are invited to a special forum. Come hear:

Charlotte Kates, on Palestinian political prisoners.

Kates is Co-chair of the Middle East Subcommittee of the National Lawyers Guild and organizer for New Jersey Solidarity–Activists for the Liberation of Palestine and Al-Awda NY who participated in a recent delegation to Palestine focused on the plight of 11,000 political prisoners held by the U.S.-backed Israeli occupation forces. She witnessed part of Palestinian leader Ahmad Sa'adat's trial in an Israeli military court.

Heidi Boghosian, Executive Director, National Lawyers Guild.

The NLG recently called on the U.N. Human Rights Committee and the U.N. Special Rapporteur on Torture to launch a formal investigation of the U.S. government's continuing violation of the human rights of the Cuban Five.

Teresa Gutierrez, founder of the New York Committee to Free the Cuban Five.

Gutierrez will speak on building support and how you can get to Toronto for the Nov. 9 Conference, "Breaking the Silence on the Cuban 5" organized jointly by the Canadian Network on Cuba, La table de concertation de solidarité Québec-Cuba and the National Network on Cuba (U.S.)

SPECIAL UPDATES

on the cases of U.S. political prisoners Leonard Peltier, Mumia Abu-Jamal, and Puerto Rican political prisoners.

- Toni Zeidan, Director, Leonard Peltier Defense Committee
- Representative, New York Free Mumia Abu-Jamal Coalition.

September 28 delegation at the U.S. Dept. of Justice delivering a letter to acting Attorney General on behalf of the Cuban Five

Tuesday, November 6

6:30 pm

Solidarity Center

55 W. 17th St., 5th floor

(between 5th & 6th Ave.)

Trains: F/1/2/3 to 14 St. / L to 6 Ave. / Q/N/R/W/4/5/6 to Union Sq.

Donation: $5.00 To help in the work of defending political prisoners
No one turned away for lack of funds

Sponsors: NY Committee to Free the Cuban Five, International Action Center