More than 1,000 lesbian, gay, bi, trans (LGBT) and other activists fighting oppression based on sex, gender and sexuality have already signed on to the call for Rainbow Solidarity for the Cuban Five.

These U.S.-held political prisoners, in the order they appear above—Fernando González, Ramón Labañino, Antonio Guerrero, Gerardo Hernández and René González—were jailed merely for having infiltrated CIA-backed right-wing terrorist commando organizations to monitor and stop attacks on Cuba from U.S. soil.

The struggle to win their freedom has galvanized a broad united front among those who battle oppression based on their gender expression and/or sex and who they love. Individuals and organizations have signed on from 45 countries, from every continent and from virtually every state in the continental U.S. For more information, visit: www.freethefiveny.org, or contact rainbowsolidarity4cuban5@gmail.com.
